Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.
U.S.A. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I respectfully submit the enclosed brief on Independent International Relief and Rescue for your information and retention.

I trust that you will see the potential afforded your service by the initiation and implimentation of such an organization.

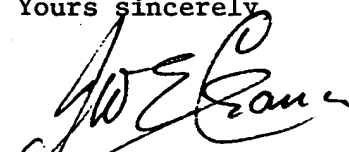

The ready availability of equipment and personnel, the various liaisons and attendant information thereby. The communications network and above all a service at no cost to the Federal Government should recommend the organization to you.

Realizing that the savings in monies would permit more advantageous use of funds in other areas of your operation should be most attractive.

I respectfully request therefore, a meeting with you at your earliest convenience for the purpose of expounding on Independent International Relief and Rescue.

I remain,

Yours sincerely

J.W. Crane
